Clarification of Audit Committee's Role

The Committee's responsibility is one of oversight. In carrying out its oversight role, the Committee and Board recognize that the Company's management is responsible for (1) implementing and maintaining internal controls and disclosure controls, (2) the preparation, presentation and integrity of the Company's financial statements, and (3) the appropriateness of the accounting principles and reporting policies that are used by the Company. The independent auditor reports directly to the Committee and is responsible for auditing the Company's annual financial statements and for reviewing the Company's unaudited interim financial statements. The Committee also recognizes that the Company's financial management, as well as the independent auditor and the Company's internal auditors, have more knowledge and detailed information about the Company's financial accounting practices and policies and the application of generally accepted accounting principles to the Company's financial statements, than do the Committee members. Consequently, while carrying out its oversight responsibilities, the Committee is not serving as an auditor, and it is not the duty of the Committee to determine that the Company's financial statements are complete and accurate and are in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. Therefore, the Committee is not providing any expert or special assurance as to the Company's financial statements or any professional certification as to the independent auditor's work, and each member of the Committee shall be entitled to rely, to the fullest extent permitted by law, on the integrity of those persons and organizations within and outside the Company from whom he/she receives information, and the accuracy of the financial and other information provided to the Committee by such persons or organizations. For purposes of this Charter, the use of the word “review” shall be read in the context of the Committee’s oversight role and shall not imply obligations on the Committee which go beyond such responsibilities.
